Presents

Small Business Certifications Workshop How does my business become certified?

June 14, 2016
9:00am-11:30am

(Please arrive 10 to 15 minutes early for networking)

The San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) values diversity and encourages the participation of small and historically underutilized business enterprises in its $1.555 billion Propositions S & N construction bond program. Join us for an interactive workshop that will explain which certifications are recognized by SDCCD and how to obtain these certifications. The workshop will discuss the benefits, eligibility requirements, and how to get started on the following business certifications:

1. California Unified Certification Program (CUCP/CALTRANS)

Disadvantaged Business Enterprise · State Minority Business Enterprise · State Woman-owned Business Enterprise

2. California Department of General Services (DGS)

Small Business Enterprise · Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise

3. California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC)

Minority Business Enterprise · Woman-owned Business Enterprise

4. Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (METRO)

Disadvantaged Business Enterprise · Small Business Enterprise

5. City of San Diego

Small Local Business Enterprise · Emerging Local Business Enterprise

NOTE: Due to the number of certifications covered, the workshop is not able to address the individual application packages/step by step process for each certification.

Facilitated by: Trisha Ferrand, Senior Procurement Specialist, San Diego Contracting Opportunities Center
